Villa Vittoria is an incredible 3 bedroom Pallanza villa rental. The villa dates back to the end of the 18th century and was created to celebrate the love between the poet and musician Marquis Silvio della Valle di Casanova and artist Sophie Browne. The two lovers created a 'garden of dreams' together and converted the private chapel into a modern home that oozes character and charm.

Inside, the accommodation in this Pallanza villa rental is laid out over two floors. On the ground floor, guests will find an open plan living, dining and kitchen area. The style is contemporary and modern. There are two comfortable sofas, a dining table seating six and a piano. A log burning stove is perfect for those staying in the Winter months. Doors lead to the garden and terrace. A spiral staircase in the centre of the room leads up to a mezzanine floor. Here a sofa is arranged opposite a large flat screen TV, perfect for movie nights. The spiral staircase leads down to the sleeping area. Here there are three bedrooms. All are spacious and well presented. Built into the rock face, they ooze character. All have ensuite bathrooms. Doors lead out to terraces and gardens enjoying the incredible views over the lake. For the ultimate in relaxation, this Pallanza villa rental also comes complete with SPA wellness area. This is equipped with a Finnish sauna. The villa is nestled on the water front. Guests enjoy absolute privacy, surrounded by mature plants and shrubs. These gardens are actually modelled on those of the famous Villa Taranto nearby. Whilst the gardens of Villa Taranto are open to the public, those at Villa Vittoria are for your exclusive use. Of course, guests also enjoy splendid lake views too! Steps lead down from the garden to a private heated swimming pool and private beach area. This allows guests to enjoy a swim in the lake if they prefer. For those who have a boat, or wish to hire one, there is a private harbour and mooring available for you to use. There is a BBQ area and outdoor kitchen facilities for those who enjoy cooking and dining al fresco. Meals can be enjoyed on a platform that is set above the lake. Wisteria cascades from the pergola above, providing a flash of colour and welcome shade during the hot Summer months.

This Pallanza villa rental is located in the Castagnola promontory in the Piemonte region of Lake Maggiore, on the mainland just north of the Borromean islands. It is within walking distance of restaurants. It is also possible to reach Villa Taranto on foot. The popular, bustling town of Stresa is just a 20 minute drive away. Intra is a short drive in the other direction. Here, guests can use the car ferry to get to Laveno-Mombello on the other side of the lake
