This luxury Stresa apartment offers the best of both worlds - all the privacy, flexibility and space of a self catering apartment but with the facilities and service of one of the world's leading hotels. With stunning lake views and within walking distance of the lakeside beach, shops and restaurants, guests will want for nothing during their stay here.

Inside, this luxury Stresa apartment is beautifully furnished. The interior living space measures approximately 150 square metres and is comprised of three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, one spacious living area and one fully equipped kitchen. The open plan living, dining and kitchen area is an elegant room with comfortable sofas arranged around a wall mounted TV. Sliding doors lead to a terrace which enjoys magnificent views of Lake Maggiore below. The kitchen is sleek and contemporary with modern units and a dining table seating up to six. Outside, guests can enjoy a spot of sunbathing whilst admiring the wonderful lake views from their private garden. Luxurious sun loungers are provided at this luxury Stresa apartment. Guests also enjoy all the facilities of the nearby five star hotel which is just a few steps away. This includes a private beach area with docking facilities and an outdoor heated swimming pool which also boasts a shallow area for children. There are also two restaurants on site serving both international and Italian cuisine. Not only that but there is also a SPA and fitness centre.
